

Rotifers

Rotifers are tiny, free-living animals (1-2mm long), which can be found on external surfaces of fish. Rotifers have characteristic feeding apparatus which appear to 'rotate' at high speed.